

MA in Modern Greek Studies: Literature

This new Master's programme is offered for the first time for registration in September 2009 (for one year full-time, or two years part-time study). It is the only programme in the UK, and one of the few in the world, that provides this level of specialist teaching in the field of Modern Greek Literature within a one-year format.

The programme is discipline-based and focuses primarily on poetry and fiction of the 19th and 20th centuries, studied in comparative and historical context, and in relation to the theory and practice of literary criticism and analysis.

Further information

www.kcl.ac.uk/byzmodgre/pg/modgr/

Image: The poet George Seferis with the statue of Eros, Piccadilly, London, in 1932. Copyright: George Seferis Photographic Archive, MIET, Athens

About us

King's College London offers a unique combination of facilities for research and learning in the subject: the College's Maughan Library houses the premier collection of Greek publications in the UK; additional facilities for research are available at the British Library.

At King's, the Centre for Hellenic Studies organises a series of major lectures and public seminars in every semester and hosts an international conference every 2 years. These events attract scholars from Greece, Cyprus, the USA and other countries, providing an unrivalled research environment for the aspiring student.

Content of the programme (taught modules)

7AABMA20 Practical criticism (40 credits)

7AABMA21 Greek poetry in the 20th century (40 credits)

7AABMA23 Cavafy reader and read (40 credits)

7AABMA40 Dissertation (compulsory module) (60 credits)

Additional/alternative modules may be selected from one or more of the following programmes, subject to availability:

- ♦ MA Comparative Literature
- ♦ MA Modern Greek Studies (interdisciplinary)

Entry requirements

An Upper Second degree from a UK university, OR a GPA of 7.5 from a university in Greece or Cyprus, OR a GPA of 3.3 from a university in the US or Australia, OR an equivalent qualification: in Modern Greek Studies, English Literature, Comparative Literature, or Modern Languages. For all students, a competent working knowledge of Modern Greek is required. For students whose first language is not English, please see the current requirements of the School of Arts and Humanities.

To apply for this programme

go to www.kcl.ac.uk/graduate/apply/taught.html and follow the online instructions.

Further information

www.kcl.ac.uk/byzmodgre/pg/modgr/