

GRADUATE RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM 2023 IN MODERN GREEK STUDIES

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Society for Modern Greek studies calls on graduate students (research or taught) from universities in the UK and abroad to participate in its annual Graduate Research Colloquium. The Colloquium is a student-led event that aims to bring together students currently undertaking research in any field of the Arts and Humanities and Social Sciences related to the Modern Greek world (1453 - present), to provide them with the opportunity to present their research, discuss their ideas with their peers but also with distinguished scholars, and gain important feedback on their work.

ABSTRACTS

Proposals, including an abstract of 200 words maximum as well as a brief biographical note, should be emailed to Trisevgeni Bilia at trisevgeni.bilia@st-annes.ox.ac.uk no later than Saturday 15 April 2023. Please indicate your full name, degree title, and university affiliation in the body of the email.

Papers should be in English and should not exceed 20 minutes. Participants will be notified of the selection of their abstract by 25 April 2023.

Successful applicants must be members of the Society for Modern Greek Studies. If not, they may join the Society after they are notified of successful submission, at www.moderngreek.org.uk/society/join

The Colloquium will take place in person at the Faculty of Medieval and Modern Languages, University of Oxford on Saturday 17 June 2023

ABOUT THE SMGS

The Society promotes teaching and research in Modern Greek Studies throughout the United Kingdom. It organises regular events, disseminates information, and collaborates with other related institutions and organisations. Its online journal Modern Greek Studies Online began publication in 2015. The Society also acts as the UK national body representing our subject and is affiliated to the European Society of Modern Greek Studies.

The Society welcomes submissions from graduate students registered at universities outside the UK but can only refund travel expenses (up to £50) if they are payable to a UK bank account. Priority will be given to students registered at UK universities.
